Hello Parents...

We hope everyone enjoyed the long weekend that brought us a short week, with only one week left of Term 2 ahead of us...!!

Practical Life; It is lovely to see how the children's practical life skills have developed. The older children being independent to follow steps to make lemon tarts, having acquired the skills for weighing, rubbing in, mixing, rolling and cutting. It is also lovely to see the older children help and guide the younger children in these tasks.

In art, this week, the children have helped to make a display for next terms class topic, 'Transport'

If any parents would like to contribute to this topic for Term 3, we welcome any ideas you may have, so please come and share them with us. Thank you 😊

We would like to say thank you to parents for attending the parent/teacher interviews this week. It has been great getting to know more about the children and also getting to know the parents.

Funny story;

Matilda was reading her word list at the table, discussing with Gill and Aidin the meanings behind each word. She read the word 'an' and Aidin asked, "What does 'an' mean?", to which Matilda replied, "You know, I want 'an' in my sandwich". After we stopped laughing, Gill asked Matilda, "Do you mean, I want 'ham' in my sandwich?", Matilda replied, "Yes"
